All motions for approval of an agreement to provide adequate protection, for the modification or termination of the stay provided in § 362, for the use of cash collateral, or for the approval of an agreement between the debtor and an entity that has a lien or interest in property of the estate pursuant to which the entity consents to the creation of a lien senior or equal to the entity's lien or interest in such property shall require the service on or the consent of the following entities:

2. In Chapters 7, 12, and 13, all agreements, as set out above, require the consent of the Trustee appointed in the case, unless the Trustee has been served with the agreement and the Trustee has expressly abandoned the asset, filed a report of no assets in a Chapter 7 case, or indicated in writing that the Trustee has no opposition to the motion. No further service on any other entity shall be required unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(c) Payment of Secured Claims After Motion for Relief Is Granted or Collateral Surrendered. In a Chapter 13 case, after a motion for relief from stay has been granted, or after confirmation of a plan or a modified plan that provides for surrender of secured collateral, the Chapter 13 Trustee is authorized, following written notice to any such creditor, to suspend payments on any claim filed by such creditor. Actual possession of the collateral by the creditor is not a prerequisite for the application of this Rule. After liquidation of the collateral the creditor may reinstate its right to receive payment on the claim by notifying the Chapter 13 Trustee in writing, with a copy to the Court, that it believes it is entitled to payment under the plan, and the creditor furnishes an accounting of all proceeds, if any, received from the sale of the collateral.

1. Except in Chapter 11 cases, if collateral securing a claim, including leased property, is a motor vehicle, trailer, boat, or an airplane, and if there is a contractual obligation by the debtor to provide collision and comprehensive insurance and the same is not in effect, then the creditor may file with the Court a motion for ex parte relief from the stay pursuant to § 362(f) to obtain possession of the collateral or leased property.

2. The Bankruptcy Court may, in its discretion, apply this Rule to a Chapter 11 case.

(4) The movant is authorized to take physical possession of collateral or leased property required to be surrendered under this Rule, and to hold same, at the movant's risk. The movant shall not dispose of the collateral or leased property unless and until the automatic stay is modified, terminated, or expires as a matter of law. If the debtor provides adequate evidence of full collision and comprehensive insurance prior to the expiration or termination of the automatic stay, then the movant shall return the property to the debtor;

(5) The movant or movant's counsel shall serve copies of the motion and proposed order promptly on the debtor, the debtor's attorney, and the Trustee, and shall provide telephonic notice to the debtor's attorney and, if the Trustee is in actual physical possession of the property, to the Trustee.

The debtor or creditor are free to decline entering into any such negotiations and are empowered to terminate the negotiations at any time invoking the full protection of the stay under § 362.

(f) Automatic Termination of the Stay Pursuant to Section 362(c)(3). Upon the filing of a motion by a party in interest pursuant to Section 362(c)(3)(B), the court hereby authorizes the extension of the stay until the court enters a final order on the motion. The notice of the motion shall be deemed completed upon service on all parties in interest, and said notice shall be prepared, filed, and served
